ReBuairtel to Charlotte, 7/29/66.

Enclosed are two .22 caliber slugs which were obtained from Sheriff elect PAUL GIBSON, Guilford County SO, Greensboro, N. C., on 8/15/66. GIBSON stated these slugs had been obtained from the living room of the home of [REDACTED] on 5/17/66 by himself and Deputy Sheriff [REDACTED]. He stated he had just been able to locate these slugs after searching for them for approximately one week.

It should be noted that referenced airtel reflects the following lead for Charlotte:

"2. Immediately forward the expended .22 caliber cartridges obtained from [REDACTED] to the Laboratory along with the expended .22 caliber cartridges located by the Sheriff's Office at victim's home to determine whether these were fired from the same weapon."

b7C

It should be noted that only slugs were obtained by the SO from victim's home. Four empty .22 caliber shell cases and one .22 caliber hollow point bullet were obtained from the home of [REDACTED] the prime suspect in this matter, by consent search.

The .22 caliber bullet and the expended shell cases are not being forwarded to the Laboratory at this time since no weapon has been located with which to compare these items.

The Laboratory is requested to examine the slugs to determine their exact caliber and whether they bear sufficient markings to effect an identification in the event a comparable weapon is located.

On 5/15/58 Clarence G. Seidel, 2402 Spring St., West Lawn, Pa., a former KKK (100-7801) member in the Reading, Pa., area from 1924 to 1935, reported several contacts he had with an unidentified youth from Shoemakersville, Pa., in about 1956 and 1957. Seidel wrote a KKK letter of introduction, signed with his former Klan title, for this youth when he was in the Army and the youth claimed he had joined a Klan group in the South before he was discharged from the Army because of injuries.

It was noted that the above youth would appear to be Roy E. Frankhouser who had applied for a Reading Post Office Box in the name of the KKK with Clarence Seidel and himself authorized to receive mail.

Roy E. Frankhouser and seven other unidentified men wearing white hooded robes passed out leaflets and white cards in Reading, Pa., 4/13/68. Frankhouser and others later were driving a car on which was a placard "KKK wishes you a Happy Easter." Reading police arrested Frankhouser and eight other "members of the Ku Klux Klan" when they passed out cards containing defamatory reference to Negroes. They were charged with "inciting the local colored element." Police have advised one of the cars used by the Klansmen had a Delaware license and he therefore inquired as to a violation under the new legislation, although there were no incidents during the parade.

On August 8, 1968, Judge WARREN K. HESS, Berks County Court, Reading, Pa., dismissed the charges against the eight Klansmen. The Constitutional right to freedom of speech was the basis on which Judge HESS found that the actions of the defendants, as shown by testimony in the preliminary hearing, did not constitute inciting to riot.

A P P E N D I X"MINUTEMEN"

The "Minutemen" was organized in June, 1960. Its present headquarters are Norborne, Missouri. Robert B. DePugh, Norborne, Missouri, has been publicly identified as the founder and National Coordinator of the organization since its inception. Membership of the "Minutemen" is claimed by DePugh to be in excess of 35,000 members; however, confidential sources state this figure is greatly exaggerated and that a more true estimate would be between 500 and 1,000 members. Statements by DePugh and literature distributed by the organization indicate its purpose to be the resistance to, and exposure of, the spread of Communist influence within the United States; for the formation of a guerrilla or underground organization to combat the troops of any foreign powers which might eventually occupy this country; to resist passage of laws which would regulate private ownership of firearms.

In April, 1966, DePugh stated the "Minutemen" organization was then dividing itself into two bodies: one group to be members who have been able to maintain their identity in complete secrecy from the public and government investigative agencies, and the other group to be made up of members who have been publicly identified and who will become active in the Patriotic Party. National conventions of the Patriotic Party were held in July, 1966, at Kansas City, Missouri, and July, 1967, at Kansas City, Kansas.

Members of the "Minutemen" organization, including Robert B. DePugh and his close associate, Walter P. Peyson, have been arrested in the past on charges of violation of the Federal Firearms Act, Bank Robbery - Conspiracy, Illegal Possession of Firearms and Conspiracy to Commit Arson. They have also engaged in maneuvers utilizing guerrilla tactics wherein machine guns, mortars, grenades, and other firearms were employed.
